United States Attorney Joe Stecher and the U.S. Department of Labor announce the following information for the attention of the media:

Event Triggering this Release: On March 3, 2009, the Honorable Judge Laurie Smith Camp sentenced Marilyn Adams, 66, of Omaha, Nebraska, to a term of 12 months in prison followed by 3 years of supervised release for her conviction for failure to file a required Department of Labor form.

Adams was indicted in April of 2008 in a two count indictment alleging that a nursing staffing business she formed, AMS Healthcare Services, withheld monies from the paycheck of its employees for purposes of making contribution to a company sponsored 401K program through Hartford Life Insurance Company. Adams, along with her son, Jeffrey Adams, withheld $111,136 dollars with the promise of forwarding those funds to the Hartford Life Insurance Company. Marilyn Adams, as the company president and plan administrator was required to file forms with the Department of Labor documenting funds withheld and transmitted to the 401K plan. Judge Smith Camp ordered Marilyn Adams to pay restitution in the $111,136 dollar amount to the 39 former employees from whom she stole. Her son, Jeffrey Adams also charged in the same indictment has also plead guilty and is scheduled to be sentenced on April 20, 2009.
